

FOR MARINE RADIO COVERAGE IN NSW BECOME A SEAHAWK RADIO CLUB MEMBER WITH MARINE RESCUE BOTANY PORT HACKING – SOLANDER RADIO BASE

Sea Hawk Radio Club membership of Marine Rescue NSW is available for a nominal annual fee.

As all of your details are available to MRNSW Bases state wide, You can travel to any location along the NSW coast and using your Sea Hawk call sign and the local unit will have all of your details except for variables like, launch point, destination, POB and ETR

We record details of:

- Your boat - its description, colour and registration
- Your car and trailer (if applicable) for emergency checks at boat ramp.
- Your home contact details
- Your telephone numbers

We provide:

- A SEA HAWK Radio Call Sign
- Membership Card
- Radio service provided by 45 MRNSW units along the NSW coast from Point Danger to Eden
- Also inland at Alpine Lakes (Lake Jindabyne, Lake Eucumbene) & Moama on the Murray River near Echuca
- An opportunity to participate in various public courses to improve your seamanship skills, radio procedure, navigational skills etc.
- We also offer boating products from the Marine Rescue e- Shop at discounted prices when you log in with your Radio Club membership number.

On request we will:

- Monitor your on-water movements and safe return, by radio or Marine Rescue App.
- When you log on with Marine Rescue, you only need to provide us with your launching location, your intended destination, the number of people on board, and your ( ETR) estimated time of return as we have on record all your relevant boating information.
- Provide a contact between you and any concerned person on shore should you be overdue from an outing. Your family can telephone the MRNSW base with whom you logged on for assistance.
- When you go on holidays, you can log on with any Marine Rescue Base in NSW. Your details will be in our central Sea Hawk database.
